

Three Brooks Nature Conservation Group

<http://www.three-brooks.info>

Grass Cutting

Saturday 7 July 2007

On the first really sunny day in weeks (we ordered it specially), we cut the area of grass next to Webb's Wood, which is identified in the management plan as being of particular value for plant diversity. Armed with scythes we completed more than half of the area and will go back next month to finish the job.